Due to the continued increase in the number of cases of flu and because of concerns regarding the coronavirus (COVID-19), Archbishop Paul Coakley has implemented the following temporary precautions for churches in the Archdiocese of Oklahoma City:

- Parishioners who are sick or experiencing symptoms, should stay home. Catholics are not bound by the obligation to attend Mass, including on Sunday, if they are ill. Out of charity to others, individuals who are sick with infectious illnesses should not attend Mass or other liturgical events;
- Temporarily discontinue the distribution of the Precious Blood at Mass;
- Discourage the holding of hands during Mass, including shaking hands during the Sign of Peace;
- Where permitted, please strongly consider receiving Communion in the hand rather than on the tongue. Receiving communion on the tongue may expose the hands of priests, deacons or Extraordinary Ministers of Communion to saliva, which can be passed to other parishioners. When Mass is celebrated in the Extraordinary Form, reception of Communion in the hand is not an authorized option and receiving on the tongue will continue.

The archdiocese will alter these directives as needed. Please continue to pray for all who are sick and families affected by these illnesses.

Most Rev. Paul S. Coakley
Archbishop of Oklahoma City

Debido al aumento continuo en el número de casos de gripe y debido a las preocupaciones con respecto al coronavirus (COVID-19), el arzobispo Pablo Coakley ha implementado las siguientes precauciones temporales para las iglesias en la Arquidiócesis de Oklahoma City:

- Los feligreses que están enfermos o experimentan síntomas, deben quedarse en casa.

Los católicos no están obligados a asistir a misa, incluso los domingos, si están enfermos. Por caridad a los demás, las personas enfermas de enfermedades infecciosas no deben asistir a misa u otros eventos litúrgicos.

- Suspender temporalmente la distribución de la Preciosa Sangre en la Misa.

- Desalentar la toma de las manos durante la misa, incluso dar la mano durante el signo de la paz.

- Donde se permita, considere seriamente recibir la Comunión en la mano y no en la lengua. Recibir la comunión en la lengua puede exponer las manos de los sacerdotes, diáconos o ministros extraordinarios de comunión a la saliva, que puede transmitirse a otros feligreses.

Cuando se celebra la misa en forma extraordinaria, la recepción de la comunión en la mano no es una opción autorizada y la recepción en la lengua continuará.

La arquidiócesis alterará estas directivas según sea necesario. Continúe orando por todos los enfermos y las familias afectadas por estas enfermedades.

Reverendísimo Pablo S. Coakley
Arzobispo de la ciudad de Oklahoma
