Letter from Peter de Keratry, Exec Directory of Stewardship and Development,
Archdiocese of Oklahoma City

Thanksgiving is just around the corner and this year has helped make more evident the many and varied ways God bestows blessings on each of us. ... and not always in the way we imagined!

As you reflect on how God has worked in your life this year, please consider the many blessings your parish community has brought to you.

The priests and staff in our parishes have worked tirelessly through the pandemic to continue bringing Christ to people.

Thanksgiving is a wonderful holiday and it is quickly followed by Black Friday,

Small Business Saturday, the First Sunday of Advent, then Cyber Monday.

December 1st is GIVING TUESDAY and I'd appreciate if you "save the date."

On GIVING TUESDAY you can make a huge show of support for your parish by making an additional parish gift.
